

GIRLS! LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR

Bottle of "Danderine" makes hair thick, glossy and wavy.

Removes all dandruff, stops itching scalp and falling hair.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff, is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will, you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp. Danderine is, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—slightest surprise awaits every one who tries this.—Adv.

SHEEPSHEAD BAY PAYS TRIBUTE TO AVIATOR STEHLIN

Flyer Who Won High Honors in France Modest Hero at Banquet.

Those Sheepshead Bay folk certainly know how to treat a war hero. They proved it last night when about 2,000 of them got together to do honor to their Joe—to Lieut. Joseph C. Stehlin, who has come back to them after a year of battling in the air for France.

The roof is still over the big banquet hall at Stauch's, Coney Island, but it was nearly raised clear off when, as a climax to the festivities, the crowd arose and gave three cheers and a tiger for Joe. There was nothing decorous about those cheers. They shook the building. If the Kaiser could have witnessed the patriotism and determination and high confidence behind that spontaneous outburst, he would realize the futility of going on.

Joe just blushed and blushed, and grinned and grinned. His sisters, Misses Josephine and Lillie, beamed. And his grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Burr, looked just as happy as any nice old lady like she is would look under such circumstances.

Her boy—she calls him that, for both parents are dead—was a conquering hero, all right, but he conquered by his modesty. He was that shy! His record shows that he knows just what to do when he encounters the foe in the clouds, but he was disarmed by the bombardment of compliments and the machine gun fire of praise he received last night.

Joe wasn't cut out for a matinee idol who ever has a pretty speech at

SHE DARKENED HER GRAY HAIR

Well Known Lady Tells How She Darkened Her Gray Hair by a Simple Home-Made Remedy.

Mrs. E. H. Boots, a well known resident of Buchanan County, Ia., who darkened her gray hair by a simple home-made remedy made the following statement:

"Any lady or gentleman can darken their gray or faded hair, and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe, which they can mix at home. To half a pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, one small box of Barbo Compound and 1/4 ounce of glycerine. These ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost. Apply to the hair every other day until the gray hair is darkened sufficiently. It does not color the scalp; it is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off. It will make a gray haired person look 10 to 20 years younger."—Adv.

LIEUT. J. C. STEHLIN, AVIATOR WAR HERO OF SHEEPSHEAD BAY

the tip of his tongue, and the bevy of pretty girls who surrounded him was enough to rattle any fellow. They were peaches, all of them. And you couldn't blame them for paying Joe tribute, for he was a handsome boy in his natty French uniform of blue coat, red trousers, black boots and funny little red cap.

The reception was a foretaste of what the city is going to give our boys when they come marching home with the Kaiser's helmet. Sheepshead Bay is jealous of its Joe and tried to keep the affair limited strictly to home folks, but pshaw! There were Manhattanese there, too, and some from Queens, and even New Jersey was represented. In fact, the chief Jersey delegate, Joseph Baker, political leader and former judge in Hudson County, made one of the biggest hits of the evening outside of Lieut. Stehlin.

Mr. Baker told of the efforts of the Sheepshead Bay Welfare Committee which got up the dinner and reception to get eminent speakers for the occasion. He modestly said that since it was impossible to bring President Wilson. It had been decided to do after the next most famous New Jerseyite. His presence was the result. Mr. Baker then said some nice things about the young war hero and got a big hand.

Joe deserved all the nice things said about him, though he wouldn't admit it himself. Just about a year ago, when he was less than twenty years old, he tried to enlist in the American flying service and was rejected because of insufficient height. He then went to France and trained there, and finally was sent over the fighting front as a private. He quickly proved his mettle and was promoted to sergeant and then to lieutenant.

HAS WON FRENCH WAR CROSS WITH TWO PALMS

He bears the French War Cross with two palms and has had two citations for bravery displayed in air battles. He has brought down three enemy planes according to the strict French records, which give credit only for machines officially observed to fall, and had about forty other encounters with German flyers. Last month he came home and on landing was welcomed at the City Hall by Mayor Hylan. He is now trying to decide whether to accept a captaincy in the British air force, which has been offered to him, or to join up with one of the American units. Whatever his decision, he will make his efforts felt, for he is a genuine fighting man.

Arthur W. Dennen was a capable and genial toastmaster. He is an attorney, as everybody out Sheepshead Bay knows, but benefited by a reversal of authority when, in calling on County Judge Marcus M. Campbell for a speech, he warned the jurist not to take up too much time. Judge Campbell didn't, but what he said was to the point.

"This is the first of our boys to go Over There," he declared, "and he is the first to come back. Others have come since and some of them will not come back. But all who go are a symbol of America's strength and her power to win. We're proud of Joe's record and mighty glad to get him back, and we feel that his honors are our honors."

Mr. Dennen called on Col. Clarence Smith of the 10th Regiment State Guards, to which Joe used to belong when it was part of the National Guard. The colonel declared he would not make a speech, and then surprised all the experienced banquet attenders by keeping his word.

"All I can say is that I am proud that Lieut. Stehlin was a member of our organization," he declared. "We are all proud of him. And to-morrow night he will review our regiment with Mrs. Whitman, wife of the Governor. It is the first time a woman has reviewed the regiment and it is fitting that she should be one of such prominence and that she should have a war hero for a companion."

STEHLIN "THE KIND OF MEN THAT WILL WIN WAR"

Richard Newcomb, who was almost elected County Judge in Queens in the recent election, and whom everybody there knows as a political power, thrilled the crowd when he spoke of Lieut. Stehlin's work.

"He is the stuff of which our country is made," declared Mr. Newcomb. "The kind of men that will win this war. There wouldn't be many of our boys now in France or on the way who are just as brave and just as capable, but there are none who were ready to go when America's cry for help was heard. He has done great work."

"And the great work will go on. The manhood of the country will stand the test and will not let up in the fighting until autocracy is conquered forever."

Joe then was called on for a speech and he bashfully stood up. "I am not an orator," he said. "But I want to impress upon you the vital seriousness of this war. You at home do not realize it. It is regarded often as a sort of sport. It is not that. I can tell you that after a year of it. 'We—all of us—must exert our every energy to win, and I am sure we will. Germany is not anything like conquered yet, but she will be when we get at her in earnest.'"

Joe then told the crowd how much he appreciated the reception, and sat down amid an ovation that a victorious general might have envied. There were other honors in store for him. Lieut. Stehlin was one of the boys from Our Lady of Solace parish and a detachment of boy scouts, the guests marched to the main floor of Stauch's, where they lined up and their spokesman presented a purse of gold to Stehlin, after which "The Star Spangled Banner" drew more enthusiastic applause.

Everybody who is anybody in Sheepshead Bay attended. There were Lieut. Col. Frank Dean, Capt. Charles Shinn and Major Edward Haddock of the 10th, the Rev. Arthur R. Cummings, who obtained a special dispensation to attend a banquet during Lent; the Rev. D. J. McCarthy, Frank G. Walker, who was Chairman of the Dinner Committee, and Alderman John Ryan, to mention only a few. Mayor Hylan sent his regards to Stehlin and regretted he could not come, owing to previous engagements. Sheriff Daniel J. Griffin, who has been called to Washington, sent a similar message.

The ladies also were a big factor in making the affair a success. Among them were Mrs. Lawrence Mulligan, Mrs. Thomas Paton, Mrs. William H. Stricker and Mrs. Charles Kahn.

AUSTRIAN KILLS OFFICER.

Pennsylvania Then Shoots Himself—He May Die.

BLAIRSVILLE, Pa., Feb. 13.—(By-reading himself in his house when arrest seemed imminent, John Murner, an Austrian, shot and killed Constable Joseph Artley when the latter approached the house with warrant charging the Austrian with disorderly conduct. The Austrian then placed the gun barrel in his mouth and fired, inflicting a wound which may prove fatal. Murner had not worked for some time and an argument he had with the mistress of his boarding house is said to have started the question of where Murner obtained funds to support himself. The woman got out the warrant.

WAR SAVINGS STAMP SALE HERE PASSES $4,000,000

Telegram From National Director Shows Total for Nation Already Exceeds $15,000,000.

Sales of War Savings and Thrift Stamps in the New York City district up to Feb. 13 amounted to $4,880,000.30, or about 8 per cent of the total sales throughout the country.

Frederic W. Allen, State Director for Greater New York, received a telegram of congratulation from Frank A. Vandenberg, National Director of War Savings, on the work of the War Savings Committee in New York. Mr. Vandenberg's telegram read:

"War Savings Stamps sales to-day passed the $15,000,000 mark and the sales have been running at the rate of more than $2,000,000 a day. The steadily growing volume of savings placed at the service of the nation by millions of citizens is splendid evidence of your effective work. "Business as usual is a wholly wrong theory in war times. It is only by teaching the people to save and not to compete for labor and materials with the Government that we can put the whole strength of the nation into this war."

SUGARLESS CANDY O. K.

Food Administration Lists Kinds Patriotic Should Eat.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—Consumption in war time of candies containing little or no sugar has been approved by the Food Administration as accomplishing two definite things, the saving of sugar and the continuing of the confectionery industry.

Four kinds of candies are recommended. The first includes chocolate and cocoa candies with centers of nuts and fruits and uncoated soft candies, such as nougats. The second includes stick candy, lemon drops, peanut brittle and the like. Marshmallows and similar candies make up the third group and in the fourth are gum drops and jellies.

BAR TEUTONS IN ORCHESTRA.

Springfield Willing for Dr. Muck to Direct Boston Symphony, However.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Feb. 15.—The City Property Board voted not to allow the use of the Auditorium by the Boston Symphony Orchestra, "because the members who are citizens of Germany or Austria-Hungary are eliminated for this occasion." It is understood the orchestra includes twenty-two Germans and eight Austrians. The board is willing to accept Dr. Karl Muck as a Swiss and to allow him to appear.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

It's Grandmother's Recipe to keep her Locks Dark, Glossy, Beautiful.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Weyl's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Weyl's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Adv.

MRS. DOOLEY'S ADVICE TO WORKING GIRLS

"I wish all girls who work and suffer from functional disorders would profit by my advice and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before I was married, when I came home from work at night, I would be just worn out with pains which dragged me down. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me feel like a new woman. I can work from morning until night and it does not bother me, and I wish all girls who suffer as I did would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. H. Dooley, 1185 25th Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

Working girls everywhere should profit by Mrs. Dooley's experience, and instead of dragging along from day to day with life a burden, give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. It has overcome thousands of conditions, thousands of others, and why not for you? For special advice, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years' experience is at your service.—Adv.
